KEY: THE CUP OF PRAYER

How your soul number is calculated

In Tantric Numerology from Kundalini Yoga, your date of birth is read like a map. It gives five numbers, and the first and most personal of them is the soul number.

Your soul number comes from the day of the month you were born. If it is a single digit, that is already your soul number. If it has two digits, you add them together. For a birthday on the 16th that is $1 + 6 = 7$, and for the 25th it is $2 + 5 = 7$. In this system 10 and 11 are not reduced any further, because each of them stands for a body of its own.

Women born on the 4th, 13th, 22nd or 31st of the month have soul number 4.

What the soul number shows

The soul number speaks about your relationship with yourself: what moves you from the inside, where you draw strength from when no one is watching, and where you most easily lose yourself when things get hard.

Kundalini Yoga teaches that we are made of ten bodies, ten layers of our being that together form a whole. Each number from 1 to 11 corresponds to one of them. Your soul number shows which body is your inner home, the place you return to when you have lost your way.

Numbers and bodies

1	Soul Body	7	Auric Body
2	Negative Mind	8	Pranic Body
3	Positive Mind	9	Subtle Body
4	Neutral Mind	10	Radiant Body
5	Physical Body	11	Eleventh Body
6	Arcline

Besides the soul number, your date of birth carries four more numbers: the karma number, the gift number, the destiny number and the path number. Each of them carries the energy of one of these bodies.

4 · Neutral Mind

Do people tell you things they have never told anyone else? When two friends argue, do you understand both sides? In a meeting where everyone is talking at once, do you stay quiet and then say one sentence that makes everything clear? That is your neutral mind.

In Kundalini Yoga the fourth body is the Neutral Mind, also called the meditative mind. It listens to both the voice of caution and the voice of enthusiasm, weighs them, and decides from a place of calm. It is the part of you that can observe without judging and see the whole picture. When it is strong, you have clarity and calm even when everything around you is stirred up. When it is overloaded, you listen to every side for too long and the decision keeps slipping away. The key of this number is the cup of prayer: to be open like a cup that receives, without needing to solve everything right away.

YOUR QUALITIES

People come to you to be heard because they sense you will not judge them. Around you they can be who they are. You hear what someone does not say out loud, and often it is your question that opens a conversation that has been waiting a long time.

In chaos you can stay calm. When everyone around you panics, you see what really matters, and the decisions you make from silence are usually the most authentic.

WHERE YOUR CHALLENGES AND DIFFICULTIES LIE

Sometimes you get stuck in an inner debate. One voice says go, another says stay, and it goes on for days. While you are thinking, life decides for you, and in the end the debate itself tires you more than any decision would.

You understand every side so well that sometimes you do not take a side at all. You often carry other people's stories as if they were your own, and by the end of the day there is no room left for you.

IN YOUR RELATIONSHIPS

In relationships everyone comes to you to pour their hearts out, and you understand each person's side so well that you easily forget your own. Your lesson is to listen to yourself as carefully as you listen to others, and to make your decision from calm, in time.

THE LESSON ASKING TO BE LEARNED

Your lesson is silence, every day, even for a few minutes. When the first quiet answer comes, trust it. It usually arrives before the head starts to argue.

One small thing for tomorrow

A decision with a deadline

Tomorrow, pick one decision you keep putting off and give it a deadline, Friday for example. Write it down. When the day comes, sit in silence for five minutes and decide by the first calm answer that arrives.
