KEY: BE BALANCED AND TEACH

How your soul number is calculated

In Tantric Numerology from Kundalini Yoga, your date of birth is read like a map. It gives five numbers, and the first and most personal of them is the soul number.

Your soul number comes from the day of the month you were born. If it is a single digit, that is already your soul number. If it has two digits, you add them together. For a birthday on the 16th that is $1 + 6 = 7$, and for the 25th it is $2 + 5 = 7$. In this system 10 and 11 are not reduced any further, because each of them stands for a body of its own.

Women born on the 5th, 14th or 23rd of the month have soul number 5.

What the soul number shows

The soul number speaks about your relationship with yourself: what moves you from the inside, where you draw strength from when no one is watching, and where you most easily lose yourself when things get hard.

Kundalini Yoga teaches that we are made of ten bodies, ten layers of our being that together form a whole. Each number from 1 to 11 corresponds to one of them. Your soul number shows which body is your inner home, the place you return to when you have lost your way.

Numbers and bodies

1	Soul Body	7	Auric Body
2	Negative Mind	8	Pranic Body
3	Positive Mind	9	Subtle Body
4	Neutral Mind	10	Radiant Body
5	Physical Body	11	Eleventh Body
6	Arcline

Besides the soul number, your date of birth carries four more numbers: the karma number, the gift number, the destiny number and the path number. Each of them carries the energy of one of these bodies.

5 · Physical Body

You may notice that you learn best by doing. You do not read a recipe to the end, you start and figure it out along the way. When someone explains something to you, real understanding comes only once you try it with your own hands. And once you have mastered something, you can show it to someone else so that it makes sense to them right away.

In Kundalini Yoga the fifth body is the Physical Body, the temple through which everything else becomes real. Through it ideas take shape, and what you know becomes how you live. Five is the number of balance between work, rest and play, and the number of the teacher. When that balance is there, you have strength and patience for yourself and for others. When it is lost, the body shows the tiredness first, and only later does the head notice it was too much. The key of this number is be balanced and teach. What you live through, you can pass on to others.

YOUR QUALITIES

You know how to turn an idea into action. While others talk about plans, you have often already taken the first concrete step, and people know that whatever you take on will get done.

You have a talent for explaining. Colleagues ask you when they do not understand something, and friends come to you for advice because you give it clearly and practically. Many women with this number are natural teachers, even if they never call themselves that.

WHERE YOUR CHALLENGES AND DIFFICULTIES LIE

You know the days when you work all day, come home and keep tidying? The body puts up with a lot for a long time, and you easily skip the signs of tiredness, so you only stop once they are hard to ignore.

When your body is tired, you snap more easily over small things and feel sorry afterwards. When you see others having time for themselves, a quiet question comes up: and when is it my turn? Behind it there is often a learned belief that rest has to be earned.

IN YOUR RELATIONSHIPS

In relationships you are often the one who organizes, helps and finishes everything, and then you quietly wonder whether anyone sees how much you carry. Your lesson is balance: to say clearly what you need and to hand part of the work to others, with love.

THE LESSON ASKING TO BE LEARNED

Your lesson is rhythm. When your body knows when it sleeps, eats and moves, it relaxes and gives you strength. Rest does not have to be earned. It is part of the balance.

One small thing for tomorrow

A reminder to end the day

Tomorrow, set a reminder for half an hour before the time you want to go to bed. When it rings, stop with your tasks, wherever you are. Even mid-sentence. A small, steady rhythm is the kindest gift you can give your five.
