KEY: A PERSON IN PRAYER

How your soul number is calculated

In Tantric Numerology from Kundalini Yoga, your date of birth is read like a map. It gives five numbers, and the first and most personal of them is the soul number.

Your soul number comes from the day of the month you were born. If it is a single digit, that is already your soul number. If it has two digits, you add them together. For a birthday on the 16th that is $1 + 6 = 7$, and for the 25th it is $2 + 5 = 7$. In this system 10 and 11 are not reduced any further, because each of them stands for a body of its own.

Women born on the 6th, 15th or 24th of the month have soul number 6.

What the soul number shows

The soul number speaks about your relationship with yourself: what moves you from the inside, where you draw strength from when no one is watching, and where you most easily lose yourself when things get hard.

Kundalini Yoga teaches that we are made of ten bodies, ten layers of our being that together form a whole. Each number from 1 to 11 corresponds to one of them. Your soul number shows which body is your inner home, the place you return to when you have lost your way.

Numbers and bodies

1	Soul Body	7	Auric Body
2	Negative Mind	8	Pranic Body
3	Positive Mind	9	Subtle Body
4	Neutral Mind	10	Radiant Body
5	Physical Body	11	Eleventh Body
6	Arcline

Besides the soul number, your date of birth carries four more numbers: the karma number, the gift number, the destiny number and the path number. Each of them carries the energy of one of these bodies.

6 · Arcline

Do you ever think of someone and right then they call? Do you know how something will end before it begins? Do you sense the mood in a room the moment you walk in, before anyone says a word? That is your Arcline.

In Kundalini Yoga the sixth body is the Arcline, a bright arc that runs from ear to ear across the forehead, like the halo in old paintings. It is the seat of intuition, focus and intention. Through it you sense what has not yet been said, and you keep your course when life pulls you every which way. When it is strong, your thoughts are clear and your intentions carry weight. When it is tired, you scatter more easily and other people's feelings get in more easily. The key of this number is a person in prayer: when you are focused and clear, you see the way to what you imagine more easily, and you stay on it.

YOUR QUALITIES

Your intuition is loud, and you often hear it before reason has a chance to explain. You can read people and situations faster than you could say how you did it.

When you commit to something, you can stay with it for hours and see it through. Your words and intentions carry weight, so when you tell someone that everything will be all right, they really feel it.

WHERE YOUR CHALLENGES AND DIFFICULTIES LIE

You start something with great enthusiasm, a new habit, a course or a project, and for the first few weeks it goes beautifully. Then a bad day comes, and another, and the thread gets lost. This has nothing to do with laziness. Your emotions simply have a strong effect on your energy.

You also easily absorb other people's feelings. After talking with someone who is sad, you carry that sadness for a long time without noticing it is not yours. And the thoughts you keep turning over easily start to color what you see.

IN YOUR RELATIONSHIPS

In relationships your mood easily follows the mood of others. When your partner is struggling, it becomes hard for you too. Your lesson is to stay in your own center while you are there for others: to be a support without carrying what belongs to them.

THE LESSON ASKING TO BE LEARNED

Your lesson is consistency in small things. One small practice repeated every day, on good days and bad ones, strengthens you more than big plans. And watch how you speak about yourself. With you, those words carry special weight.

One small thing for tomorrow

Three minutes every morning

Tomorrow morning, before you pick up your phone, sit for three minutes and breathe slowly, with your attention on the point between your eyebrows. Three minutes is small enough to do every day. And that is exactly what makes your six strong.
