Subtle Body

KEY: MASTERY OR MYSTERY

How your soul number is calculated

In Tantric Numerology from Kundalini Yoga, your date of birth is read like a map. It gives five numbers, and the first and most personal of them is the soul number.

Your soul number comes from the day of the month you were born. If it is a single digit, that is already your soul number. If it has two digits, you add them together. For a birthday on the 16th that is $1 + 6 = 7$, and for the 25th it is $2 + 5 = 7$. In this system 10 and 11 are not reduced any further, because each of them stands for a body of its own.

Women born on the 9th, 18th or 27th of the month have soul number 9.

What the soul number shows

The soul number speaks about your relationship with yourself: what moves you from the inside, where you draw strength from when no one is watching, and where you most easily lose yourself when things get hard.

Kundalini Yoga teaches that we are made of ten bodies, ten layers of our being that together form a whole. Each number from 1 to 11 corresponds to one of them. Your soul number shows which body is your inner home, the place you return to when you have lost your way.

Numbers and bodies

1 Soul Body	7 Auric Body
2 Negative Mind	8 Pranic Body
3 Positive Mind	9 Subtle Body
4 Neutral Mind	10 Radiant Body
5 Physical Body	11 Eleventh Body
6 Arcline

Besides the soul number, your date of birth carries four more numbers: the karma number, the gift number, the destiny number and the path number. Each of them carries the energy of one of these bodies.

9 · Subtle Body

Do you notice details others miss? A change in a friend's voice, a look that lasted a second too long, a pattern that keeps repeating in your relationships? Do you feel the beauty in small things, the light through a window, a well-made sentence? That is your Subtle Body.

In Kundalini Yoga the ninth body is the Subtle Body. It sees beneath the surface, senses the rhythm of things and knows when the moment is right. It is the part of you that notices fine nuances and, with time and patience, turns experience into wisdom. When it is strong, you have calm, a fine sense for people and ease in what you do. When it is restless, you want results right away and it is harder to stay with one thing. Nine is the number of mastery, and the key of this number is mastery or mystery: when you stay with something long enough, it becomes your wisdom.

YOUR QUALITIES

You have a fine sense for people and situations. You quickly grasp the essence and see what is hiding behind the words. In a conversation you are often the one who says: wait, this keeps repeating, and suddenly everyone sees the pattern.

When you give yourself enough time with something, a craft, a skill or a relationship, it gains real depth, and people notice. You also have a good sense of timing, when to say something and when to wait.

WHERE YOUR CHALLENGES AND DIFFICULTIES LIE

You start something new with excitement, and when it gets hard or boring, you want to move on to the next thing. When things do not move quickly, you get disappointed easily, and in the end you have a lot of stories you started and never finished.

Because you see the potential in people, you sometimes trust them before you really know them, and later what you see surprises you. Behind both patterns there is often a restlessness, a feeling that something better exists somewhere.

IN YOUR RELATIONSHIPS

In relationships you see in people what they could become, so you let them close before you really know them. And when the first spark fades, you easily think this is not it. Your lesson is patience: to let time show who is who.

THE LESSON ASKING TO BE LEARNED

Your lesson is to stay. Choose one thing and keep going past the point where it gets boring or hard. That is usually where it starts to get good. And go easy on yourself along the way.

One small thing for tomorrow

A date forty days away

Tomorrow, pick one thing you feel like giving up, a practice, a skill or a course, and write a date in your calendar forty days from today. Until then you do not decide whether it is worth it. You just keep going. Decide on that day.

THANK YOU

Thank you for being here

Thank you for signing up and for taking this time for yourself. The soul number is only one of the five numbers in your map. In the full Personal Map you read all the numbers together: your qualities, your challenges, your lesson in relationships, the talent that comes easily to you and the direction in which you feel fulfilled, along with the seven-year cycle you are in right now and your personal year.
